A Berlin despatch received in Amsterdam to-day forecasts the carly resignation of Lenine and Trotzky, the Bolshevik Foreign Minister, owing to their increasing unpopularity.

Reuter's Petrograd correspondent, telegraphing Monday, says:

"It seems improbable that the peace treaty will be ratified by the Congress of Soviets at Moscow March 12.

"The delay of a fortnight granted by the Germans for ratification constitutes an opportune respite for the Soviets, which probably will be utilized in the organization of a Red army and the development of means of defence.
